Centering Thought

"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy."
Strength to Love, 1963. - Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Prayers of the People*Pastor Jo Ann*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Lamb of God, for ever taking away the sin of the world, please visit this congregation with your salvation. Come with your almighty gentleness and lift from us the burden of everything that discourages, bewilders, or makes us anxious. Come with your beauty and induct us into your peace, strength and holy happiness. Lamb of God, evoke in us the want and the will to be the people you wish us to be. Amen!

Offering**Doxology*Choral Anthem: There's a Wideness in God's MercyScripture: John 1:35-42Sarah Stockhaus

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).
